Up for sale is my beautifully newly refurbished Audi A4 2.8 V6 Automatic. I have not spared expense to get this car back to near original glory. I am an Audi enthusiast and own 2 of these brilliant A4 B5 models. There are too many things to mention in this post that I have replaced on the car but I have the receipts of every penny spent on this car's restoration in a portfolio which will be sold with the car. I also have lots of photos of the work being done. Some mechanical examples are brand new brake discs & pads, suspension & shocks, tyres, engine & gearbox mountings, lambda sensors, all fluids & filters, vacuum pipes etc etc. The car drives like almost new again and really looks the part. Everything works well. Good power (128kw, 250nm), good economy (9.8l/100km combined), extremely smooth and comfortable (2500rpm @ 120kmh). Standard features include " Candy white paint, Grey carpets & leathers seats with black interior trim, remote central locking with alarm, electric mirrors, airbag, lockable cubby hole, cruise control, climate control A/C, E/W, ABS brakes, P/S, onboard computer (shows fuel consumption, DTE, outside temperature etc), sunroof, towbar. Extra features include " Matte white Plastidip protective paint with colour matched bumpers, tinted anti smash & grab window film, 17" Audi S-Line alloy wheels, full white L.E.D. interior lighting package including license plate light, Philips Diamond Vision headlight globes, Audi Concert 1 sound system with Bluetooth, USB, AUX and memory card. It's a luxurious, pretty powerful yet economical sedan with all the extra's you need. I have spent tens of thousands on it, starting with replacing everything mechanical and cosmetic which showed its age. Once I had everything in absolute perfect condition I started spending on improvements, which are subtle but made a big difference to appearance. My car is mechanically 100% and not a cent needs to be spent on it for many more miles. Next service is in 10 000km. 2 original spare keys and all books. My ONLY reason for the sale is because I want to get an SUV for some trips I have planned which will have a lot of off-roading. I include most of my car history in the sales as I have paid for most of my name plates. It will be easy to see please message me on WhatsApp 06 000 221 466 or consider me for to go for more details. My e-mail for bakki@bakkies.co.za or by e-mail dylan@bakkies.co.za
